Austin M. Hagee is a criminal defense lawyer based in San Antonio. Austin is a San Antonio native and he attended UTSA's Alvarez College of Business prior to attending St. Mary's University School of Law. Austin is a former Bexar County felony prosecutor and he has also worked in civil litigation. Austin has served as a SAYLA director for the past two years, and he is proud of the programming he was able to help SAYLA bring to its membership both prior to and during the pandemic. Austin is looking forward to continuing to provide dynamic and relevant CLEs and events to SAYLA membership if elected to another term on the Board of Directors. Austin hopes you will give him another opportunity to serve the young lawyers in our community.
