Rebecca Page was born and raised in San Antonio, Texas. She completed her Bachelor's Degree in criminal justice and graduated from the University of Texas, San Antonio, summa cum laude. In 2012, she joined Watts Guerra LLP and began working in the medical records department. One year later, she applied for law school.

Rebecca attended St. Mary's University and graduated cum laude in December 2017. During law school, she worked as a research assistant for Professor Vincent Johnson and Professor Chenglin Liu.

She interned for Judge David Ezra in the Western District Texas where she had the opportunity to work on local cases as well as those arising out of the Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals. Rebecca also volunteered at pro bono events such as wills and Veterans clinics.

During her free time, Rebecca loves to play flag football, cheer on her Indianapolis Colts, and spend time with her dog, T-Bone
