

Founder of Myers Immigration Law, Matthew Myers has practiced business immigration law for 10 years. Matthew served as likely the youngest Chair in the history of the Texas Bar Immigration Section, after which he was appointed by the President of the Texas Bar to serve on the Committee on Laws Relating to Immigration and Nationality. He is an active member of the San Antonio Bar Association as a past Chair of the International Law Section and the American Immigration Lawyers Association (AILA) on the Global Migration Section. Matthew was recently appointed to serve as the AILA Liaison to U.S. Customs and Border Protection in Laredo, TX, the largest U.S. land border Port of Entry.

As Social Co-Chair for SAYLA, Matthew secured the first sponsorship of SAYLA happy hours and started and implemented a policy of securing sponsorships in order to increase the frequency and quality of SAYLA social events. He would appreciate your vote to continue his successful voluntary leadership activities.
