

Hey there, fellow SAYLA members! I've been an active SAYLA member since becoming licensed in Texas, attending every event that I can, and I've probably met most of you already!

As a fully bilingual attorney licensed in both Mexico and Texas, I bring a unique perspective to the table. Growing up in various cities across Mexico and the United States gave me an appreciation for diverse cultures and legal systems from an early age. My legal journey began at Mexico's renowned Monterrey Institute of Higher Technology and Education (ITESM), where I earned my Bachelor's in Law and Political Science. During this time, I participated in the "Forming the Global Attorney" program at the prestigious Garrigues law firm in Madrid, Spain, further broadening my international legal outlook.

After obtaining an LL.M. from St. Mary's University School of Law and becoming licensed in Texas, I discovered my passion for civil litigation and family law. For the past two years, I've focused almost-exclusively on civil litigation, primarily in the family law field, and I recently joined Higdon Hardy & Zuflacht as their newest associate.

One of my passions for the legal field is the endless knowledge and constant opportunities to learn, but I also firmly believe that as attorneys, we need to dedicate just as much time to building relationships and nurturing our social side as we do to our work in the office. As a SAYLA board member, I'd work on planning engaging events for both continuing education, and for socializing and staying active together. I'd bring my diverse background and international experience to the table, to hopefully foster strong connections and cross-border collaboration.

I believe that having a balanced life helps me bring fresh energy and perspectives to my work-when I'm not in lawyer mode, you can find me staying active, gaming and hanging out with friends, or traveling with my family.

I'm excited about the opportunity to serve you and would be honored to have your vote! Together, we can continue our journey as lawyers while having some fun along the way. Thanks for considering me!
